410. Brig London Packet, from London for St Michaels: taken by the Paul Jones, and wrecked on Nantucket.

411. Schr. Farmer, of Nassau, N. P. laden with cotton, captured by the Sparrow of Baltimore, but given up. The capt. of the Farmer speaks in the handsomest terms of the liberal conduct of captain Burch, of the Sparrow. The most trifling article was not permitted to be touched; He would not even receive some poultry without paying for it.—Here is an example for the commanders of "his majesty's" ships of the line.

412. Schooner ——— sent into Machias, by the Wasp, of Salem.

413. Schooner Crown, a British privateer captured off Waldoboro, by a sloop fitted out at that place, manned by volunteers.

414. Ship ———, sent into Brest, (France) by the privateer "True blooded Yanker," said to be worth from 4 to 500,000 $.—The privateer had taken five other valuable prizes. One loaded with dry goods and Irish linens had been ordered for the U States.

415. Brig Malvina, 10 guns, from the Mediterranean for London, laden with wine, &c. captured by the letter-of-marque schooner Ned, of Baltimore, on her way home from France, and sent into North-Carolina.

(June 5)

420. Schooner ———, taken by the Alexander, her valuable articles taken on board the the privateer, and then given up to the prisoners.

422. Brig ——, from Jamaica for Halifax, laden with rum, sent into Portsmouth, N. H. by the Fox privateer.

423. Ship Nancey, —— guns, sent into Bristol, R I. by the Yorktown, of New-York. From her size and armament, the Nancey was taken for the Essex frigate.

424. Schooner ———, of 8 guns, captured at York, U. C. by the squadron under commodore Chauncey.

425 Schooner Delight, from Bermuda for Halifax, laden with wine and silks–sent into Mathias, by the privateer boat Fame, of Salem.

426. King's packet Mary-Ann, 12 guns, from Malta, having touched at Gibraltar, for England; captured after an obstinate battle, by the Governor Tompkins of New York, and sent into Boston.——$60,000 in gold and bullion, and the mail, are among the spoils of the conquerors. The privateer has no person hurt; 1 man was killed and several wounded on board the packet.

(June 19)
